SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Ever since the establishment of the first paper on the bay of San Francisco, which we believe was the "Alta," removed from Monterey in 1850, the inhabitants of the Coast generally have been interested in the new paper from San Francisco. The "Alta," like many other papers of its kind, has succeeded to the satisfaction of its readers in the great majority, and the other papers have been succeeded by younger generations. The "Examiner" has taken perhaps the most prominent place in the newspaper field of late years, and its weekly edition is very generally taken by those who want an interesting and reliable paper published at "The Bay." It is familiar with the "Examiner's" enterprise, and it is only necessary to say that this year the aggregate value of the premiums—of which there are 4,000—of $100 each, which are distributed among all the subscribers to the paper, in addition to the prizes, which range in value from 50 cents to $100, every subscriber receives one of the best great premium pictures, which will be mailed to him in a letter from the "Examiner" office as soon as the subscription is received.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Melancthon.

"The Roman Carol Dances," by A. Wagner.

Each of these pictures is 12x18 inches, and they are elegantly mounted in a series of albumen, showing every tint and color of the great originals, either of which could not be purchased for $100.00.

"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Henry.

"Christ Leaving the Precinct," by Gustave Dore.
